Interest free period	Maximum of 56 days for purchases, if you pay your balance in full and on time and have paid the previous months balance in full and on time. There is no interest free period on cash withdrawals, balance transfers or money transfers.
Interest charging information	You will not pay interest on new purchases (e.g. new purchases shown on your statement) if you pay your balance in full and on time. Otherwise, the period over which interest is charged is from your due date until the purchase is paid off in full.
Allocation of payments	If you do not pay your outstanding balance in full, we will allocate any payments to balances which attract the highest rate of interest first, and to amounts which have already appeared on your statement before allocating your payments to any amounts subsequently applied to your account. For further details please refer to your Credit Card terms and conditions.
Minimum repayments	Every month, where there is an outstanding balance on your account, you must make at least the minimum repayment for the month by the payment due date shown on your monthly statement. The minimum repayment is the higher of either £5 or the total of the amounts listed below for the billing cycle: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• default charges and fees added to your account;</li> <li>• any 'overlimit' balance;</li> <li>• interest payable, and;</li> <li>• 2% of the remaining balance</li> </ul> If you owe less than £5, your minimum repayment is the actual amount outstanding. If you have an instalment plan, the minimum repayment will be increased by the monthly instalment.
